Jyotish, the sacred science of light, illuminates the soul's journey through the canvas of time.

This report presents the celestial pattern configured at the exact moment of your birth according to the classical Vedic tradition of India. Unlike Western tropical astrology, it utilizes the sidereal zodiac, reflecting the actual astronomical positions of the constellations, and offering profound clarity on dharma (life purpose) and karma.

The natal chart, or Janma Kundali, is fundamentally an instrument of self-knowledge: it illuminates inherent strengths, karmic growth areas, and the chronological timing of major life seasons.

VI

The Twelve Houses

Under the Whole Sign system, each house coincides with an entire sign. Your 1st House is Cancer, and the rest follow in order. Each house is read through two things: the planets inside it and the planet that rules it.

HOUSE	SIGN	DOMAIN	LORD	LORD IN	OCCUPANTS
1	Cancer	self	Moon	5	—
2	Leo	resources	Sun	9	—
3	Virgo	communication	Mercury	9	Ke
4	Libra	home	Venus	10	—
5	Scorpio	creativity	Mars	8	Mo
6	Sagittarius	work and health	Jupiter	6	Ju
7	Capricorn	partnership	Saturn	11	—
8	Aquarius	transformation	Saturn	11	Ma
9	Pisces	dharma	Jupiter	6	Su Me Ra
10	Aries	career	Mars	8	Ve
11	Taurus	gains and networks	Venus	10	Sa
12	Gemini	inner life	Mercury	9	—

Where Your Energy Gathers

Your House 9 gathers 3 planets (Sun, Mercury and Rahu): a good share of your energy and attention goes to dharma (purpose), higher philosophy, guidance, and spiritual path.

Empty Houses

Houses 1, 2, 4, 7 and 12 hold no planets. An empty house is not an inactive one: its matters unfold according to its lord, whose position the table shows.

House 6 is ruled by a planet placed in it: matters that sustain themselves and tend to be stable in your life.

VII

Planetary Periods · Vimshottari Dasha

The 120-year Vimshottari Dasha system is the cornerstone of predictive Jyotish. Starting from the Moon's exact degree at birth, it divides life into major periods (mahādaśā) ruled by different planets, each subdivided into sub-periods (antardaśā) that fine-tune its tone.

MAHĀDAŚĀ	FROM	TO	DURATION	STATUS
Saturn	1913	1928	15.7 yrs	Completed
Mercury	1928	1945	17.0 yrs	Completed

Current Major Period: Jupiter

DURATION: 16.0 years ◆ TIMELINE: 2013–2029

Period of expanding horizons, philosophical depth, and spiritual benevolence.

In your chart, Jupiter sits in Sagittarius, House 6 (work and health), where it is in its own sign: it acts autonomously and with its own resources. It rules Houses 6 (work and health) and 9 (dharma): these are the areas this period brings to the foreground.

Sub-periods of Jupiter

You are now in the Jupiter–Mars sub-period (2026–2027). Within the climate of Jupiter, it adds a note of decisive action, courage, ambition, and strategic initiative. Mars, in House 8 of your chart and lord of Houses 5 and 10, brings transformation, creativity and career into these months.

VIII

Synthesis & Life Purpose

Key threads uniting your chart:

Core Trinity

- Ascendant Cancer · outer personality and life path · emotion, protection, nurturing, home
- Sun in Pisces · essential soul purpose and vitality · compassion, intuition, transcendence, artistic depth
- Moon in Scorpio · emotional mind and inner sanctuary · transformation, depth, intensity, discernment

Where Your Path Leads

The ruler of your Ascendant, the Moon in House 5, orients your life towards intellect, creative expression, romance, and past-life merits. House 9, the most populated, adds the domain of dharma. The lord of your 9th House, the house of dharma, is Jupiter in House 6: your sense of purpose is realised through daily labor, resilience, health, and service to others. Fire prevails (3 of 7 grahas), which gives you initiative and enthusiasm. The absence of Earth points to a quality worth cultivating consciously: steadiness and practical sense.

Strengths

Your firmest graha is Jupiter (own sign, House 6): you can lean on the matters it governs.

Karmic Lessons

The Moon (House 5) and Mercury (House 9) are debilitated: their matters ask for patience and conscious work, and often become a source of wisdom once matured. Saturn in House 11 shows where maturity comes slowly but solidly: aspirations, community networks, friendships, and earned prosperity. The Rahu–Ketu axis runs between House 9 (dharma), where you are called to grow, and House 3 (communication), where you carry talents already mastered. Mercury was retrograde at birth: themes you revisit and refine more than once.

The Present Moment

You are living the major period of Jupiter until 2029, in its Mars sub-period until 2027. It is a time to work on Houses 6 (work and health) and 9 (dharma): the houses this planet occupies and rules in your chart.

This report is an instrument of self-knowledge, not a rigid verdict.
Jyotish maps the landscape; you navigate the journey.

How This Chart Was Calculated

Planetary positions come from the astronomy-engine ephemeris and are converted to the sidereal zodiac with the Lahiri ayanāṃśa (22.6439° at your birth). Houses follow the Whole Sign system, Rahu is the mean lunar node, and dignities follow the classical rules of Parāśara.
